

Botanical Field Trip and Institute visit to Srinagar, Uttarakhand, October 2018

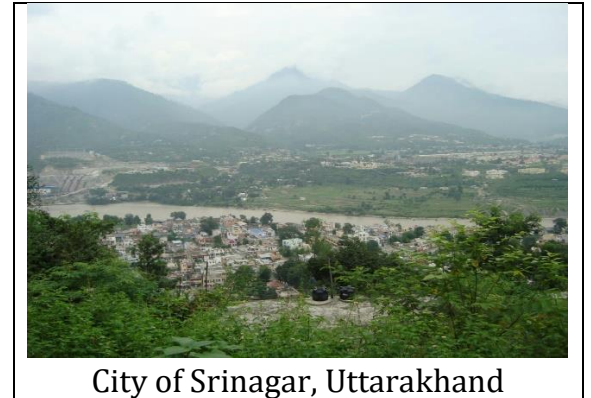

1-High Altitude Plant Physiology Research Center, HNB Garhwal University, Srinagar, Uttarakhand.

2-Herbal Research and Development Institute, Mandal, Gopeshwar - 246 401, District Chamoli, Uttarakhand from 01/10/2018 to 06/10/2018.

On the first day of the trip students visited

High Altitude Plant Physiology Research Centre(HAPPRC), Garhwal university followed by an interaction session with Dr A R Nautiyal, Director of the institute.

On second Day a visit organised to Nature Interpretation Site of HAPPRC at Chopta, located at an Altitude of 2689 meters asl, aim to establish the gene pool, propagation (seeds, vegetative parts, in vitro), multiplication, ex-situ conservation.

High Altitude research station,
HAPPRC, Chopta.

On the next day students Visited Herbal Research and Development Institute (HRDI), nodal agency of Uttarakhand Medicinal Plant Board, has been established for conservation, development and sustainable utilization of the valuable Medicinal and Aromatic Plant resources of Uttarakhand in Mandal-Gopeshwar, Uttarakhand.

Herbal Research and Development
Institute (HRDI), Mandal, Gopeshwar

List of Students:

Hemal Bhalla, Samiksha, Rincha Thakur, Ayushi, Mansi Negi, Deepa Rajput, Neha Tank, Heena Rajput, Mansi Tomar, Laxmi, Sadhna, Rinki, Palak, Bhanu, Mujibur, Udaya, Anjali, Sonika, Mrityunjaya, Poras, Shivani

List of Teachers:

Dr Parveen Garg, Dr Kiran Bala, Dr Anuradha Yadav, Dr Shibaji Baghar

