About the Seminar: The Department of Botany and Environmental Studies organized a webinar on “Water is Life” and celebrated two important international day “World Wetlands Day” and International Polar Day” on 16 February 2022, with the main motive to make aware the students about one of the important natural resources i.e. Water. Without water there is no life whether it is the terrestrial ecosystem, Aquatic ecosystem, and the poles. Dr. Tamal Mondal, Scientist, Zoological Survey of India, Andaman and Nicobar Regional Centre, and Shri Gopal Arya a social and Environmental thinker presented their view about the topic. More than 80 students and faculty members attended the webinar and found it the useful and one of the useful sessions related with environmental awareness.
